MADE IN KYOTO

Kyoto's allure lies not only in its shrines and temples or the elegance of the city. For more than a millennium since the year 794, Kyoto flourished as the capital, leading the way in the arts, architecture and commerce. The essence of Japanese culture was born in Kyoto, and has been refined and passed down to modern times. "MADE IN KYOTO" introduces artistry at its best - from traditional weaving and cuisine to state-of-the-art robotics - created and nurtured by the masters of Kyoto who know true quality.

PRISON SCHOOL

Live-action drama of the hugely popular comic, "PRISON SCHOOL" which won the 37th Kodansha Comics Award.

The drama "PRISON SCHOOL" is set in a draconian boarding-style girl's academy-turned-coed. It centers around five boys including Kiyoshi the main character who, for the infraction of trying to peek into the girls' bath, are caught by the "Secret Student Council" headed by three girls, and are locked up in a prison on the school grounds. With their youth at stake, the boys set out to free themselves. This drama is often silly with the boyish appeal of adolescence and is sure to have you in stitches, but it will also touch your heart.

Wine, Dine and Woo Me

Megumi Kanbayashi has been a freelance writer for five years. As a just-turned-30 single woman, she is beginning to feel the pangs of marriage anxiety. One day, Megumi's editor brings her an idea for a series to be offered on the internet. It's a novel premise - advertise for a single male looking for a relationship; then he picks a restaurant for a blind date during which "he woos her over a meal." Megumi loves the idea of a free, delicious meal and seizes the opportunity. And so begins the search for candidates for "Wine, Dine and Woo Me" column series!
